

Project Aim

The primary goal of this project is to create a web-based platform that enables students to list and exchange second-hand clothes, hostel products(Bed, study table, mattress) and other essential items.

this platform also aims to provide support and ease he financial burden on students by promoting the exchange of items instead of purchasing new ones.

 \vee

